

Invitation to CCI Europe 2026 in Hungary In the Heart of Europe

at St. Andrew's Castle Hotel, in Bőlske, Hungary.

CCI: August 9th–15th

Teachers' workshop: August 7th–9th

CCI-Europe 2026 is hosted by the Hungarian Co-Counselling community. We have been an active group since 1985, initiated into "life" by our dedicated teacher, Mary Corr. We kept it in a flow by an ongoing team of a few dedicated co-counsellors and refreshed by a few new people joining us. As usual, we will organize a CoCounselling Teachers' Learning Gathering as well that is open to all co-counsellors. Our calling theme for both events is

Inner Compass in Times of Change and Transformation

How can Co-counselling serve the growing need for resilience and regeneration in mindful presence by deep inner work in times of turbulence, uncertainty and growing fear of chaos?

Dear Fellow Co-Counsellors, Friends, and Explorers of Pathways to Inner Truth, Integrity and Transformative Presence

In a world that often spins with unpredictability—externally loud, fast, and fragmented—there remains a steady pulse deep within us. A quiet truth. A living presence. A knowing.

We invite you to inquire into this depth together and in a safe and shared space in the serene grounds of Saint Andrew's Castle and Park. Let us gather in the spirit of shared discovery and deep connection. Your inner compass is the intuitive force within—a synthesis of feeling, history, values, and embodied wisdom. It comes to life when we have worked on our obstacles woven from the threads of our individual and collective wounds, distresses, pains and hurts.

It is what you turn to when the maps fade.

It orients you when language falters and the external world seems to pull in ten directions at once.

At this CCI gathering, we will ask:

- How do we stay present to our inner guide when the world is noisy?
- What does it take to listen deeply to ourselves—and to one another—without being swept away by fear, urgency, or external judgment?

Over six days of community-led workshops, mutual support, play, reflection, nature connection, and healing practice, we will explore what it means to live by our own true north—not as a solitary act, but in loving, reciprocal relationship with others.

What to Expect:

- 🌀 Co-counselling spaces to unpack inner conflict and reclaim clarity
- 🌱 Theme groups focused on intuition, direction, and self-trust
- 🌿 Nature walks, silent reflection zones, and sensory awareness practices
- 🎨 Creative explorations of inner guidance through art, movement, and sound
- 🔥 Evening circles, ritual spaces, and co-created ceremonies
- 👏 A warm international community where your voice, your presence does matter
- 🍷 This event is completely alcohol-free. 🚫

St Andrew's Castle and Park- szentandraskastely.hu - offers a grounding, contemplative setting where the land holds silence and beauty in equal measure. This is not just a conference, it is a homecoming to what is essential within you.
